Officer arrested

Riverside, CA -- A Riverside Police Officer was arrested Wednesday, October 15, 2008, for three counts of sex crimes committed while on duty and in uniform.

Robert A. Forman, 38, was arrested at 11:20 a.m., at RPD's Orange Street Station and booked into Robert Presley Detention Center on two counts of 288A(k) PC, oral copulation involving a public official, and one count of 243.4(a) PC, sexual battery. Forman joined the Riverside Police Department in October 1996. He was assigned to Field Operations.

The alleged incidents occurred between February and April of 2008, according to three separate victims. Forman came into contact with each victim while conducting his patrol duties.

Riverside Police investigators are actively seeking additional information as well as additional potential victims. Anyone with information pertinent to this case is asked to call Central Investigations Lieutenant Robert Meier at (951) 353-7112.
